COVER NOTE

A member's insurance takes effect if he is pursuing his studies and carrying out his duties as a medical student or if he was one on the last day he should normally have been a student or, if he is not pursuing his studies, he can carry out the duties of a student as of the latest of the following dates:

- a) The date on which he became eligible;
- b) The date on which the administrator receives the membership application,
- c) the date on this evidence of insurability was accepted by the insurer, if applicable.

If the member is not actively pursuing his studies or cannot carry out his duties as a student because of illness or an accident on the day his insurance comes into effect, he shall become insured the day he returns to his studies and performs his duties as a student or, if he is not pursuing his studies, the day he shall be able to carry out fully his duties as a student.

The member must not be disabled at the time his insurance coverage is increased.

EVIDENCE OF INSURABILITY

The Plan is subject to evidence of insurability considered satisfactory by the insurer if the insurance application is received by the insurer after the date specified.

TRANSFER

The member can transfer his coverage within 180 days of obtaining his title of family physician or specialist in the FMSQ group insurance plan. Certain conditions apply. For more details, please refer to the contract.

TERMINATION OF INSURANCE

The Plan shall terminate no later than six (6) months after obtaining the title of family physician or specialist, without exceeding two (2) years following the end of residency. The member may terminate his coverage at any time.

MANAGEMENT OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Desjardins Sécurité financière life insurance company (DSF) treats personal information concerning you in a confidential manner. DSF keeps such information in a file so that you may benefit from the various financial services (insurance, pensions, credit, etc.) that it provides. Such information is only consulted by employees of DSF who have need of it in the course of their work.

You are entitled to consult your file. You can also correct any information that you can show to be inaccurate, incomplete, ambiguous or needless. Should this occur, you should send a written request to the following address:
